DONKEY BASKETBALL SLATED FEBRUARY 21 AT JEFF HIGH GYM

Monday evening, February 21, donkey basketball will return to Daly City, in a riotous, mirth-provoking tussle between the Jefferson high school faculty and the Lions Club. Those who saw last year's donkey basketball game, featuring the same opponents, acclaimed it as the most hilarious sports event of the year.

Returning to action for the school men will be that demon of the donkey circuit, G. I. Joe Volbrecht, the "Flying Dutchman" of the science laboratory, who last year had the spectators in hysterics with his wild antics. Another popular choice with the student body is burly John Mongan, dean of boys, who is fearful that he may have difficulty in finding a donkey capable of supporting his 235 pounds.

To lead is to inspire, and Stanford Hannah, superintendent of schools, will lead his embattled teachers into the fray. To see how inspiring Mr. Hannah can be on the stormy deck of a bucking donkey will be well worth the price of admission.

The high school faculty has the personnel for a two platoon system. The first platoon will be the heavyweights of the faculty, the team that softens up the opposition, consisting of John Mongan, 235, Grant Moseley, 200, Truman Pfeffer, 210, Vic Binsacca, 190, and Mr. Slinger at 185. The speed demons, making up the paperweight team, will consist of Joe Volbrecht, 120, "Scrappy" Joe Fulford, 115, Dead-Eye Howard Miguel, 110 (soaking wet), Mr. Lassegues, 125, and Mr. Hannah, 130.

The Jefferson high coaching staff will stand by to render first aid, tape up the bruises, and carry off the casualties. Should the Lions Club prove too tough for the academic teachers, the coaches will be ready to charge in and save the day. Last year the faculty defeated the Lions Club 22-6.

Sea Scout Boys Have Anniversary

Sea Scout Ship No. 144 has changed its weekly meeting day from Tuesday to Wednesday. The time and place will remain 7:30 p. m. at Vista Grande and San Diego avenue.

The group will now have a study meeting every Monday at 7:30 p. m. under the direction of their skipper, Jack B. Carpenter.

The Sea Scouts, whose anniversary coincides with that of the boy scouts, held their anniversary party recently. They were assisted by Milo's Market in preparing their refreshments for the occasion. They have been invited by the Navy, along with the boy scouts, to visit the ships at Hunter's point this week.

The 26-foot sail boat the boys are working on, is nearly completed. She will enter her first race February 22.

Al Christensen, former member of the group, recently joined the Navy. Robert Donnelly, Skipper Carpenter's first mate, will leave for the Navy next week.

A recommendation to contact Senator Sheridan Downey in Washington to ask that the post office in Daly City be made a separate unit instead of a branch of the San Francisco office, was made by Julius Castelan of Daly City at a Democratic County Committee meeting in San Mateo Tuesday evening. The proposal was accepted unanimously.

Monday at noon the Democrats will have a dinner at the Palace Hotel. Secretary of Navy Kenneth Royall will be the speaker.

"Give Where You Live" is the slogan for the Red Cross 1949-50 campaign which will begin in a couple of weeks. Residents of Daly City who work elsewhere are urged to give in their local community.

The soldiers viewed the aircraft at Hagerstown, Md., as guests of the Fairchild Engine & Airplane Corporation during final stages of the plane's construction.

Jefferson School District Trustees Approve Plans For New School Building

STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT TO INSTALL SIGNALS

New signals and channelization to be installed during the 1949-50 fiscal year on Mission street, San Jose avenue, Hillcrest boulevard, and Wellington avenue area has been announced by the State Highway Department. A signal will also be installed at the Mission street, San Pedro road, and Market street intersection.

Plans must be altered to coincide with municipal railway's removal of Mission street car tracks.

Plans for the new Garden Village School to be constructed at the end of Garden lane were approved by the Jefferson School District Board of Trustees at a special meeting February 3 with Mario Ciampi, architect for the building.

The plan for immediate construction includes six primary and intermediate classrooms, one kindergarten and office and lavatory space. The building will be modern in design with "clerestory" lighting to make the greatest use of natural light. The floors will be asphalt tile set over concrete block in which will be imbedded tubing for radiant heating.

The plans are now in the hands of the State Department of Architecture and upon approval the Board will be in a position to call for bids on this unit which is the first of those classrooms needed in that area.

JEFF HI SENIORS WILL PRESENT THREE ACT COMEDY

An hilarious three-act comedy, "Big Hearted Herbert," will be presented by the senior class of Jefferson high school February 25. The production is well underway and promises to be one of the funniest of the year.

It has long been a question as to whether Father or Mother knows how to bring up the children best. Some say one, some say the other. Sophie Kerr and Anna Steese Richardson seem to side with Mother and prove their point very logically and entertainingly in their uproariously funny play.

Herbert may be a great man in his factory, but at home he seems to be unable to adjust his viewpoint toward the rising generation, and the result is an evening of unbounded pleasure to those who see the play. He storms and fumes and threatens, but his weapons are futile before the delightful feminine wiles of his loving and long-suffering wife.

Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. Tickets may be obtained at the school.

Deadlocked Jury

Alleged rape charges against Millard Haney, 28, of San Francisco, were dismissed last week when a superior court jury at Redwood City ended in a deadlock.

San Mateo County Civic League Starts Special Membership Drive

Officials of the San Mateo County Civic League revealed today through their secretary-manager, Hugh A. Wayne, that a special drive is now being undertaken to push the membership in the organization over the 1500 mark within the next two months.

"We are extending an invitation," Wayne said, "to county residents to join with us so that they may lend their aid in the work now being done by the league."

Wayne explained that it is the league's plan to carry on a continuing study of the county government which it is hoped will result in a more efficient administration.

The Board of Supervisors and the County Executive, Wayne said, are now approaching that "crucial" period in the year when they are about to be presented with the budget estimates for the 1949-50 fiscal year by the county department heads.

"The members of our organization," Wayne pointed out, "sincerely believe that next year's tax rate can be 'held down' if the supervisors and the department heads make a genuine effort to economize."

Wayne predicted that the county would be faced with a taxpayers "revolt" if next year's county government costs takes another unprecedented jump such as that of last year.

Peninsula residents interested in joining the league can contact the group by writing Box 372, Burlingame.

Allen Hertel Tops Water Department Eligibility List

The eligibility list for the Daly City water department was recently announced by the Civil Service Board of Review.

Allen E. Hertel, present acting chief clerk, was top for that position with Frank J. Maeso second.

High in the filings for clerk cashier was Evelyn Cahn. Others in the order of eligibility are Catherine L. Tabor, Ada E. Schultheis, Patricia McGaughy, Laura A. VanOver, Helen M. Byrne, Sophie H. Evans, Olga C. Bruck.

Most other communities are charged 75c to 90c for garbage collections, according to Mayor Paul Green.

In return for the requested raise, the Scavenger Co. has offered to collect 50 pounds of rubbish in a special collection once a month and also a special newspaper collection once a month. They would also collect two garbage cans each week, provided householders would put edible garbage in one can, and other garbage in the second can.

The council will arrange a future meeting on the matter, Green said.

Merchants Assn. Boost Change In Bus Terminals

A letter recommending the extension of the 14 and 26 bus line terminals to San Pedro Road and Mission street has been submitted by the Daly City Merchants Association to the Daly City Council.

The association believes that the present terminal, located at the Daly City Bank of America on Mission street and San Jose avenue, has resulted in a good deal of confusion to bus passengers.

At the meeting Monday night, the group appointed George Kirchhubel to head a committee to investigate the possibility of having a city health officer. Kirchhubel will choose his own committee. The association also agreed to investigate the War Memorial and to give their support to the project.

Suit Against Dolan Company Dismissed

A suit for $25,000 against the Dolan Wrecking Co. of 6939 Mission street, was dismissed last week by Judge Deasy of San Francisco, before the jury could render a decision.

The plaintiff, Moe Plansky, had contracted to paint some houses being built by Dolan Co. on Vale and Mateo avenue, in 1946. While painting, the scaffold on which Plansky was standing, gave way resulting in a broken leg for the painter.

The case was dismissed for lacy of evidence on a recommendation by Tom Bocci Jr., attorney for the defendant.

BIG TIME FEATURED SUNDAY - FEB. 12 - FOR ALL BOY SCOUT GROUPS

Saturday, February 12, will be a great day for Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Senior Scouts in this vicinity. Some 2,000 Scouts and leaders are expected at Hunter's Point Naval Shipyard to tour the yard and examine submarines, carriers, dry docks and other facilities.

About 10:30 a.m., to the music of massed drum corps, Scouts will file aboard the U.S. Battleship Iowa to conduct ceremonies opening a new two-year program to "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty," designed to focus attention of the public on the citizenship training qualities of Scouting and give more boys a richer Scouting experience.

Scouts will listen to an NBC network program at 11 a.m. aboard the Iowa, originating from Los Angeles and the Statue of Liberty in New York, and featuring movie stars Jimmy Stewart, Red Skelton, Roy Rogers, Sons of the Pioneers and Art Baker as M.C. and Arthur Schuck, chief Scout executive.

Taking part in the ceremonies at the Statue of Liberty will be the United Nations Boy Scout Troop, comprising sons of U.N. personnel of many lands, and some New York Scouts whose parents are of foreign origin.

Under the direction of Dr. Herbert C. Clish, Scout Week chairman, Marvin Lewis, and P. Tremain Loud, council president, Scouts will accept the challenge "to give service to others and to contribute in a practical way to the preservation and maintenance of the American Way of Life, and to share these God-given ideals with the people of the world."

Marvin Lewis, in commenting on the program, said "The Scouts are to be complimented in leading out on this program to 'Strengthen the Arm of Liberty'." To the American people the Statue of Liberty symbolizes a heritage of freedom bought by generations of our forefathers through hard work and sacrifice and clear thinking. Young men have laid their good lives down to preserve it. Tyranny abroad and malice within our borders have sought to imperil it. The Statue of Liberty continues to uphold the torch that enlightens the world."

Calling the "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty" program a "crusade," P. Tremain Loud, president of the San Francisco Area Council, said its objectives were threefold.

"The first goal seeks a higher quality in each of its three age level programs: Cub Scouting for boys 9, 10, 11 years of age, Boy Scouting for those 12 and over, and Senior Scouting for young men 15 and older.

"Better programs," said Mr. Loud, "will provide more fun and adventure. Boys will stay longer in Scouting and acquire more "know-how" to face the problems of manhood.

"The Boy Scouts of America seeks to make its programs available to all boys who need and want it. The second goal of more membership will be accomplished as the quality of the programs improve," Loud said.

"The third goal of the crusade is more volunteer leaders with proper training in Scouting techniques so that they can furnish necessary leadership to meet the first two major objectives," concluded President Loud.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

JEFFERSON

Broadmoor Community Center was "promoted" last week, along with the 30 kindergartners who attended there. A blackboard and pre-primers are signs of the change from kindergarten to first grade. The new first graders are busily attacking their first big problems of writing and reading. On the lighter level, they are decorating the room with bright paper hearts in anticipation of Valentine's Day.

At Jefferson School the low first grade began their school days in the correct manner by making a tour of their school. They visited each room and upon returning to the first grade, discussed the things they should do to become good citizens of their new school.

The new first graders had a pleasant surprise in the form of a dramatic story, "White Rabbit, Grey Squirrel and Yellow Duck," which the high first grade enacted for them. The actors had drawn large pictures of each animal and while Jo-Ann Varni read the story, the other children pantomimed the action. The children who were not included in the play have asked if, in the near future, they could put on a play of their own.

"Around America With Us" was the social science study lesson in the fifth grade this week. The pupils in the class told interesting facts about different states where they had lived.

Richard Stookey and Bernard Lemp gave interesting reports on the Great Lakes and Eastern States. Eric Faust told about Florida, its climate, its swamp lands, as well as its famous beaches.

Lowell Klaisner described Nevada and also told about its ghost city. Alan Arneson enjoyed Minnesota. He visited the coal mines there. Margo Gorospe, who lived in Colorado, described Denver and its beauty.

Everyone in the class hoped to visit Hoover Dam and the Grand Canyon of Arizona after Corinne Young described these interesting places.

When Gwen Anthony showed the sixth grade class some brightly colored rocks which she had found on her way to school, it became the starting point for an interesting lesson in science and oral language.

Marianne Zanone and Harry Youtsey found some articles in the encyclopedia and science books explaining many things about rocks. The class has decided to start a hobby table. The first exhibits will be various kinds of rocks.

The results of the election held last week to determine the class officers for the eighth grade have been announced. Marjorie Duncan was elected to the very important office of president. Vice president is Martin Caravano; secretary, Margaret Ratto, and treasurer, Joanne Van Vliet. All these officers were selected from the high eighth grade on grounds of their ability and contributions to their class during the past years.

The eighth grade also elected two class representatives from their room. Shirley Rasor and Stanley Stanton were chosen for these positions.

The newly established traffic patrol at Jefferson has met with the approval of both teachers and parents. The boys have taken their new responsibility with the seriousness it deserves and are establishing a fine record. The group has been commended by the police department for the excellent work they have been doing.

WOODROW WILSON

The students of the Woodrow Wilson Elementary held their first student body meeting for the spring term. The following officers were elected: president, Donna Kollman; vice president, Gary McFall; secretary, Shirley Scott; treasurer, All Dixon; sergeants-at-arms, Ronald Charlton and Billy Allen.

Before beginning the study of their unit, "The Islands of the Pacific," the students of the low and high sixth will study the geographica lconcepts of the world.

The students of the low and high seventh are learning to locate places by means of latitude and longitude.

CROCKER

One hundred and three students have been transfered to Crocker School from the primary and elementary schools of Woodrow Wilson. This was necessary because of the shortage of classrooms and the plan to have as many students as possible on a regular single session schedule. Two more classrooms, with approximately forty students each, are now on a single session basis. This provides a regular school day and hours as well as an adequate program to develop the curiculum on a normal basis.

The H8 group at Crocker has the largest enrollment—44 prospective graduates! Enrolled as H8 students who formerly were Woodrow-ites last term, are the prospective graduates: Bob Donham, Adriano Fernandezees, Jewell Bell, Joe Lewkowitz, Thor Oftedal, Dorothy Kelly, and Lois Rasmussen.

The first student assembly took place on Wednesday, February 2, when the need to clarify the discussed annual versus semi-annual promotion system was explained to the student body. Parents were made familiar with the plan by the superintendent. Thus, teachers felt a summariation and clarification of several conflicting ideas in the minds of the students could thus be eliminated and a complete understanding and sense of security realized by these young pupils. A 91.7 per cent response to date has been received at the Crocker School with a two and three-fourths to one majority voting favorably for a once a year promotion. Psychologically, academically, and socially this program will result in a more efficient and secure adjustment for the citizenry of tomorrow!

Students of Crocker School are beginning their new semester with enthusiasm and anticipation. Many new projects and activities will be undertaken during the following months.

During their musical appreciation period, low and high fifth graders heard "Finlandia," a tone poem. Later, there was discussion on the families of instruments used to express the different moods in this musical composition.

H5 and L6 students have begun their social studies units, "California" and "The Pacific Islands." In arithmetic the classes are being introduced to the use of fractions.

Classes of the L7 and H7 are anticipating a fascinating time in social studies, visiting the various countries of Europe. They will discover how people in other lands live and why they live as they do. In addition, they will learn each country's important contributions to civilization.

At present, the classes are review ing fundamentals in arithmetic and language before beginning the study of new material.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADS OFFERED TELEVISION COURSE

A 42-week course in the operation and maintenance of electronics equipment including television and radar is being offered to qualified high school graduates by the Redwood City Navy recruiting station. The course is given at the Navy Electronics School at Treasure Island, San Francisco.

High school graduates may, without obligation, take the mental and physical tests to determine if they are qualifed for this course. The electronics course is one of many schools offered to high school graduates under the Navy's "Choose Your School Before You Join Plan." Further information in the electronics school may be gained by visiting the Navy recruiting station at the county courthouse or by phoning EM 8-1185.

HI-LITES From Jefferson Union High School

by Carol Donaldson

The date for the forthcoming Donkey basketball game has been set for February 21, which will fall on a Monday. The Daly City Lions Club will oppose the faculty. The preliminary feature will be a regular basketball game between the Colma Boys Club and the Borlo Athletic Club. This tussle will be well worth seeing.

Fifty-one freshman students entered Jeff last Monday. There are 21 boys and 30 girls. Their first day at Jeff started with an assembly during which the laws and facts about the classes were explained to them.

The new student body cards will go on sale again soon. These cards are sold every six months and entitle the students to reduced rates at games, dances, and other school affairs. Only card holders are members of the Associated Students. The cards are a standard design voted on last year by the students. The originator of the design is Bernardo Merino.

The entertainment committee met recently to submit names to be voted on by the executive board which was to select a chairman. Jane Bernath was chosen. Tentative plans for a St. Patrick's Day dance were discussed.

"Birthdays" Theme At Church Dinner

"Birthdays" was the theme of the monthly pot-luck dinner held at the Buri Buri Community Church last week. A table was decorated for each month of the year.

A home-baked birthday cake was donated by Mrs. Earl Stover; hot biscuits were made by Mrs. Harry B. Caton, and Mrs. A. L. Schafer donated applebutter.

Earl Stover and Mrs. O. Zimmerman were in charge of the dinner festivities.

North, South, East and West are called cardinal points of the compass. Northeast, Southeast, Northwest and Southwest are called semi-cardinal or inter-cardinal points.

HI-LITES AT C.C.S.F

By Roy Hurlbert

Currently the procedure in other Bay Area colleges, registration for the forthcoming semester holds priority at the Phelan avenue institution.

Former students started making out new class schedules yesterday with the process to continue today for returnees. Newcomers go through the same "basic training" Monday and Tuesday with initial instruction set for Wednesday, the 16th.

Since no other activity prevails at the college at this time, the writer takes the opportunity to give the spotlight to his specialty, sports reporting, in relating the remainder of this space to basketball, presently in vogue.

BASKETBALL

City College's Ram cagers abandoned their spectacular unbeaten status after 20 consecutive victories last Saturday, as they finished on the short end of a 34-33 heartbreaker with Menlo JC Oaks on the winner's court.

The loss dropped the locals in a deadlock with Modesto for the top spot in the southern division standings of the NCJC conference race. Both squads have 6-1 records in the tight battle for division laurels.

The Rams entertain comparative cinch opponents tonight and tomorrow in hosting Hartnell (2-5) and cellar dwelling neophyte Monterey (0-7) at the campus pavilion at 8 o'clock. Earlier the invading forces fell by the way side, 53-40 and 71-44 irrespectively.

On the night previous to their first reversal of the campaign, mentor Ralph Hillsman's lads rocked their traditional peninsula rival, San Mateo, 66-42, to rack up their sixth league win, the last in an extended string of remarkable duration. The latter contest made it a round robin for the Rams for in whipping the Mateans they completed the rout of co-division members in loop tilts.

City College won in a proverbial walk in the clash with San Mateo (3-3) as they rolled up a never-to-be-headed margin and coasted to the finish after maintaining an overwhelming 33-18 lead at the half.

Guard Bob Payne tanked 18 points for individual honors with Ram teammate Dud Truelsen a close second with 16 markers on eight field goals. Johnny Belden paced the ineffective Bulldogs with 11 digits.

In the hectic Menlo encounter, a set zone defense coupled with an occasional man-to-man switch bottled up the Rams heretofore swelling attack and the greatly improved Oaks worked a 13-9 intermission advantage to 18-11 in the third quarter and held on to the final buzzer. Unable to connect on long shots, the hilltoppers meshed 15 of 19 free throw attempts for a two night charity lane percentage of .757 or 25 for 33.

Truelson snared game honors with 11 tallies while Bob Payne netted nine.

Unbeaten Grant Tech (8-0) retained its dominant role for a championship playoff as the capital city basketballers subdued Napa (2-6), 65-59, and Vallejo (3-5), 75-66, over the concluded week end. Santa Rosa is hot on their heels with 7-1 while Sacramento and Marin (both 5-3) still have an outside chance for the northern bracket crown. Just over the halfway mark the two divisions are beginning to shape up in regards to title competitors.

Grant Tech faces two toughies in the Marin and Santa Rosa quintets in succession starting tonight. Sacramento engages Santa Rosa and Marin respectively in other crucials this week. The outcomes should indicate the relative strength of these challengers and could settle the bids of the contending clubs.

ODDS AND ENDS

Joseph A. Amori, college placement head, announced that an acute shortage of part-time jobs in San Francisco and the Bay Area exists. Students who depend upon this short-hour work to help out expenses while advancing their cultural capacity will be most affected.

ELECTRIC LIGHT

Shining Symbol of American Enterprise

It would be good for us all to pause a moment on the eleventh of February to honor the man who gave us electric light — and say a simple "Thank you, Tom Edison". Every hour of day and night his light serves us. And we use it freely because it is good light — good and cheap to use.

From Edison's light we have come to use electricity for more and more comforts and conveniences. We have learned to wash, iron, sew, clean house, preserve food and entertain the family — all with electricity. Today, lighting is just a small part of what many of us still call our "light bill".

In a sense it is a "light" bill. It lightens our homes and our work, and the low cost of electricity helps lighten our task of balancing the family budget.

Yr Tom Edison, thanks to you.

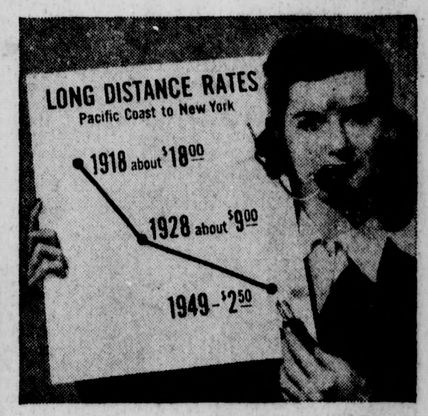
PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

WHEN FATHER CALLED NEW YORK

How in a few short years, Long Distance has speeded service, improved clarity, lowered rates

1. Back in 1918 it was quite a thing to call long distance all the way across the country. Took a good set of lungs, too. In those days you had to use as much voice to talk long distance as you would in calling to another person eighty feet away across an open field.

2. Today it's just as easy to talk across the nation as it is to talk to someone just across the table from you. Continual improvements in the telephone instrument you use, in telephone lines and cables, in voice-boosting equipment along the way, make a normal voice carry 3,000 miles or more with ease.



3. Rates have gone down amazingly. In 1918, Father paid about $18.00 for the miracle of talking Coast-to-Coast. Worth it, too. By 1928, we'd been able to drop rates to about $9.00 for a three-minute station daytime call. And today you can make the same call for just $2.50, plus tax. Here's one of today's big bargains.

4. Takes less time today to get your connection. Now calls go through in an average of less than two minutes. These are just a few examples of the way telephone service grows in value . . . becomes a better buy. A local call still costs just a few pennies. Compared to other prices, telephone service is one of your biggest bargains today.

Over 2,000 Democrats Expected To Take Part In Jefferson-Jackson Dinner

California will share the national spotlight with Washington, D. C., on February 24, when Vice President Alben W. Barkley addresses a Jefferson - Jackson Victory Dinner in San Francisco, while President Truman speaks before a similar gathering in the nation's capital.

George Killion, chairman of the Northern California Jefferson-Jackson Victory Dinner committee, said the Vice President's visit will highlight probably the "greatest Democratic celebration in the state" since the annual Democratic affairs began.

"The Vice President," Killion said, "will join with us at this significant event and will tell what President Truman, the administration, and the Democratic Party hope to achieve for the benefit of our country and the world.

"California's part in the national election helped to swing the tide of victory — a victory that renews our obligation to fight for the continuation of progressive government reflected in the platform of our Democratic Party."

Mr. Killion, president of the American President Lines and former treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, said he expected more than 2,000 Democrats from northern California to crowd into the Palace Hotel on February 24 to take part in the Jefferson-Jackson Victory celebration.

He emphasized participation was open to all Democrats in the northern part of the state, and urged all interested party members to contact Jefferson - Jackson Victory Dinner Committee headquarters, Room 214, 593 Market street, San Francisco.

California Grocers Association Unite In Drive To Bring Wholesale Milk Costs Down

Grocers of the State, both independents and chains, united today in a drive to wring "excessive wholesale costs" from milk prices and give the consumers a better break.

Sponsored by the powerful California Grocers Association, composed of wholesalers and independent grocers, Assembly Bill 3090, designed to force the Bureau of Milk Control to fix prices for wholesale delivery to grocery outlets separately from other wholesale deliveries, was introduced during the closing hours of the Legislature recently by Assemblyman Glenn M. Anderson.

"Briefly, the purpose of the measure is to bring about a better administrative job on the part of the enforcement division of the Bureau of Milk Control," declared W. D. Hadeler, executive secretary of the Callfornia Grocers Association.

"A clause in the present Milk Control Act provides for such a classification of costs. The enforcement division of the Bureau has steadfastly ignored this provision. As a result, retail prices in stores have been unnecessarily high and the consumer has been rooked of millions of dollars over the years.

"The new amendment merely makes it mandatory for the Bureau to comply with the law. Prices of milk to consumers will drop from one to two cents per quart if the measure passes, and with no reduction in the returns to farmers.

"Safeway Stores has fought a long running battle with the enforcement division of the Bureau in the attempt to secure a reform in the administration of the laws. They have received no cooperation from officials. Instead, the firm has been vilified and its motives misrepresented. We thought it time for all the grocers to come to their support and aid in halting this gouging of the public.

"The amendment our Association has introduced is one, I believe, all segments of the retail industry can support. It makes no attempt to penalize any other system of distribution. Nor does it give grocery store distribution a preferred position, In essence, the proposal simply demands that each form of distribution bear its own true costs.

"Contrary to rumors that Safeway Stores had abandoned the fight, I have assurance they will cooperate actively.

"Queried about his position, L. A. Warren, president of Safeway, flatly declared:

"'Any movement intended to bring about an improvement in the administration of the Milk Control Act will receive our full support.

"'As you know, we and other operators have protested for years against the discriminatory procedure by which grocery store purchasers of milk have been forced to pay unreasonable prices through an arbitrary and unbusinesslike allocation of wholesale costs established by the Milk Control officials.

"'The amendment proposed by your Association will, I believe, afford a greater return to the farmer since it will increase consumption of milk by lowering prices and at the same time afford a measure of badly needed relief to consumers harrassed by high costs on all sides'."

Specials Bring Plenty Of Phone Calls At Milo's Mkt.

The staff of the meat, produce, vegetable and grocery departments of Milo's Market was hitting the bottle last week, (aspirin, that is.)

Milo's inaugurated a "new look" to their ad which resulted in nothing but confusion. They called it the "split" ad, featuring specials for Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and different specials for the following Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. Results: plenty of customers, but confused ones. The phones were ringing with calls from customers asking for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday specials on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Everything is remedied this week. Milo's is featuring the same specials for Friday, Saturday, Monday, and Tuesday.

JEFFERSON HIGH GIRLS' SPORTS

By Claire Allen

This week will be remembered by quite a few girls for many months. Last Thursday Jeff's girls basketball teams played against Sequoia's best teams. The girls on the "A" team were beaten by six points, 29-23. The members of this team were Elsie Hermansen, Jeanne Puccinelli, Dorothy Hardister, Anita Gull, Ann and Claire Allen, and Nancy Schreiber. The "B" team, which lost 32-5, was composed of the following members: Beverly Gomes, Audrey Christensen, Rita Bacigalupi, Viola Proschold, Helen Barraza, Audrey Christensen, Mary Magrin, Gloria Settrini, Theresa Ferrari, and Pat Fawcett. Members of the "C" team, which lost by a score of 14-10, were Marjorie Chase, Loretta De Bello, Dona Reed, Shirley Bane, Ruth Hermansen, Racquel Rocha, Barbara Kyles, Marie Baldetti, and Margie Simms.

The point to note about these scores is that Jeff began its basketball practice after the play day, whereas Sequoia is just finishing their basketball season. Jeff hopes to invite Sequoia to a basketball playday in a month or so at which time the girls hope to win.

Transportation to the play day was provided by a school bus, and after the games free ice cream was provided for all of the participants.

A play day is one in which the teams of two or more schools meet and compete. There may be more than one sport played, such as volleyball, tennis, or softball. In between times, when the teams are resting or waiting for a court, swimming may be offered as a break for relaxation. Usually the school which plays host provides a skit or dance program for entertainment. Sometimes each school is called upon for a skit. This idea is accepted enthusiastically by the girls. These playdays are usually held on Saturdays.

Recent Block "J" elections at Jeff resulted in the election of Joan Johnson as president, Barbara Biagini, vice-president, and Leola Huber, secretary. This organization has a dinner at which blocks are presented. The girls earn the money for these affairs through the sale of ice cream, coke, and potato chips at the games.

Ed Cereghino Given News' Sports Honor

A sophomore at Jefferson Union High school was elected this week as The News Semi-Pro of the Week. He is Ed Cereghino, pitcher for the Mike Chioino team in the Class A Recreation Pacific Coast league. Ed has four no-hit no-run games and 14 one-hitters to his credit. Playing against Newell's recently, a club with several professional players, Ed sruck out 10 batters and gave up only six hits.

Upon his graduation from high school it is said that he will be one of the most sought after ball players in California. Ed possesses a fine fast ball and good control.

Last Minute Crowds Expected As 'Tax Time' Shortens

Crowds are not too heavy at Internal Revenue offices for taxpayers to receive prompt assistance in preparing returns, Collector of Internal Revenue James G. Smyth of the First California District, said today.

Persons needing assistance in preparing income tax returns on 1948 earnings were urged to visit Internal Revenue offices as soon as they have all tax information available.

"Owing to changes in the tax laws we expect last-minute crowds this year," Collector Smyth said. "If you visit Internal Revenue offices at the present time you will be able to obtain the assistance of a deputy collector with a minimum of delay."

Subways Recommended To Speed S.F. Transit

Once again San Franciscans are studying the possibility of subways to help speed mass transportation.

The new proposal recommends a system which eventually would cost an estimated $143,775,000, and would serve the major residential and business areas of the city.

The proposal was advanced by Col. Sidney H. Bingham, Mayor Robinson's transit expert from New York. The DeLeuw Transit Study previously had recommended a subway for Market street, but the Bingham proposal would extend the pattern to include the area west of Twin Peaks, with a series of extensions and branches of the Market street subway through the financial district to the Bridge terminal and into the Richmond and Mission districts.

The Bingham proposal is designed so that future extensions could be added for other sections of the city and the system eventually could be integrated into a rapid transit network for the entire Bay Area. Col. Bigham said the system should be constructed in four stages with the Market street subway first and others following, one at a time.

A useful and efficient method of making a line fast to a spar or other line is by means of a clove hitch.

Co-op Nutrition Study For The 50-90 Year Olds

The Cooperative Nutrition Study being carried on in San Mateo county among those over 50 years of age is being completed in the Burlingame area but needs more persons in the 70, 80, and 90-year-old groups to volunteer. Registrations are now being taken for residents of the northern part of the county, including South San Francisco, Colma and Daly City.

Registration cards may be secured at the Social Security field office, 42 North B street, San Mateo, at the office of the study at the San Mateo city hall, or through local organizations throughout the county.

"With the constant increase in the number and proportion of elderly persons in the population, certain problems are coming to notice. One of them is the diet and food needs of these past middle age and the study being carried on will yield valuable results, I am sure," Foley said. "I would like to have persons receiving old age insurance under the Social Security Act volunteer to take part in the project. They can receive information that could be of value to their own doctors so their health and wellbeing can be maintained or improved. Also, they will be helping others through the general knowledge gained so that not only will 'more years be added to life but more life added to the years.' Persons over 70 years of age are especially needed at this time so that there will be a sufficient number of all age groups over 50 to make the results of the study reliable."

Greyhound Bus Lines Ask 75% Boost In Fares

An application for raising commuter rates between San Francisco and San Bruno has been asked by the Greyhound bus service.

The bus fare was recently raised from 20 cents to 35 cents for one way and from 40 to 70 cents round trip, an increase of 75 per cent for transient travelers between the two cities. Regular commuter fares remained the same at ten rides for $2.

Other fare increases in San Mateo county are as follows: San Mateo, 40c and 75c, plus tax, formerly 25c and 45c. Burlingame, the same rate to and from the city to San Francisco and to San Mateo.

FROM THE FLOOR OF THE HOUSE

Congressman Jack Anderson

January 28, 1949

Hello again—from Washington:

First of all, of course, my very best wishes for a Happy, Prosperous and highly successful New Year. Furthermore, insofar as this is my first report from the Floor of the House since last summer, I want to take this opportunity to thank you and your friends for the very fine vote of confidence I received in the general election last November. Without your active and effective assistance such a majority could not have been possible. I am deeply indebted and most grateful to all.

Well — the Eightieth Congress has passed into history, and the Eighty-first has taken its place. Only time will tell which one will leave the most constructive imprint on our nation's law books. Much maligned, "cussed and discussed," and repudiated by the voters of the country, I still believe that the last Congress went further in delivering on its pledges to the people than any other Congress in which I have served. However, that's water over the dam — so let's face the future.

There are one hundred and sixteen new House members in the Eighty-first Congress. That actually amounts to a turn-over of 27 per cent. Most of the new members appear to be pretty "liberal" in their views and I imagine that most of them will go all out for President Truman's program as outlined in his message on the State of the Union, which he delivered in person to a joint session of the House and Senate on January fifth. What this may eventually mean to the individual voter and tax-payer in the United States is problematical, but — it won't mean less taxes!

I have always considered myself a "middle-of-the-roader," rather than a "reactionary" or what is today referred to as a "liberal." Quite frankly, many of the President's recommendations to Congress cause me a great deal of concern. In his message he stated flatly that "the state of the union is good." Then he spent the balance of his thirty minute address outlining a pattern for radically changing the very system that has made it good. Must we continue or accelerate the trend toward state socialism in order to maintain the state of the union in good condition, or should we give more consideration to the private enterprise system that has made us the most productive, democratic and freedom-loving country on the face of the globe?

In my humble judgment the Truman "Fair Deal" program is largely political in its conception. I don't see how such a program can be put through without approaching a national bankruptcy that would adversely and tragically affect every citizen of this country if not in the rest of the world. This grave fact seems to be completely ignored while the political promises that were made during the recent campaign are hammered into "must" legislation for prompt and favorable action by a "sympathetic" Congress.

Now, I'm not an obstructionist, as my record for the past ten years will disclose. I supported many Roosevelt proposals which I considered to be sound, progressive and for the best interests of the national welfare. I expect to follow the same policy now. It is not my habit to blindly oppose every proposal that is offered by the administration simply because it did not originate on my side of the House. There are two sides to every question and ample scope for honest differences of opinion. It seems to me that the "American way" is to consider every proposition strictly on its merits and then vote for or against each bill solely on the basis of whether or not it is for the general public good.

My vote against the previous question on the resolution which passed the House the first day of the session and which drastically curtails the power of the Rules Committee has not only been severely criticized but, I believe, misinterpreted. In past years I've been kicked around by the Rules Committee as much as any other Member of the House who was trying to get clearance for House consideration of legislation that had the approval of one of the standing committees. My last ditch fight for the Naval Post Graduate School bill a year and a half ago is a perfect example.

However, had the previous question been voted down, as I hoped it would, a far less sweeping amendment would have been offered by Congressman Herter of Massachusetts. Practically the same objective would have been achieved, but the Rules Committee would have retained some of its previous authority as the "legislative traffic cop" of the House.

Under the present system there is no brake on the presentation to the House of any bill that is voted out of committee by any standing committee of the House. Committees make mistakes just the same as individuals do and there should be some method of slowing them down if they run hog wild. Now, under the change in parliamentary procedure, the Speaker shall (not may) recognize the Chairman of any House Committee to call up a bill approved by his committee if a rule has not been granted by the Rules Committee within 21 days. I know this all sounds technical and complicated, but it is difficult to explain it in any other way.

I may be wrong, and I hope I am, but in my opinion the Congress and the country are going to live to regret the action taken. It can result in the passage of bills authorizing the expenditure of billions of dollars for this, that and the other project; billions of dollars more than our national economy can afford. I have a tremendous admiration and a warm personal friendship for our present Speaker, Sam Rayburn, but I know that his powers of persuasion with committee chairmen and committee members are going to be taxed to the limit — or the citizens of the United States may be taxed into bankruptcy.

My faith in our representative system of government is still firm. I join you in hoping that the Eighty-first Congress will not sell our birthright of freedom and liberty for a mass of votes.

Sincerely,

JACK ANDERSON

ALONG EL CAMINO REAL

By Ray J. Hewitt

One of the old-time residents of the Monterey Peninsula came up with the thought that good golf courses and playing conditions are synonymous with the best areas in which to live and vacation.

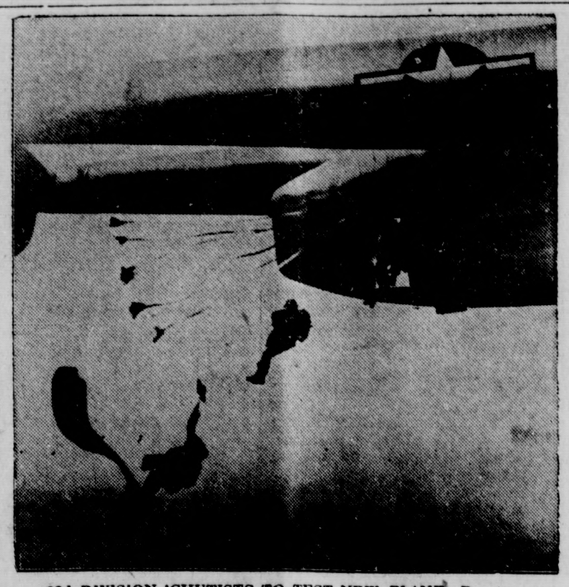
He says, "There must be a love of leisurely and pleasant living, a good climate, and beauty of landscape in order for golf to flourish." If that is the case, certainly the Mission Trails area, which is served by El Camino Real, must rank high in these requisites as nowhere else in the world are there so many golf courses concentrated in such a compact area, and it is doubtful if there is any place that compares in the number of rabid golfers.

From San Diego to San Francisco, and on to Sonoma, a distance along El Camino Real of 600 miles, there are over 100 fine golf courses. Thirty of the most sporty private and public courses are found in the Los Angeles area alone; in the San Francisco Bay region there are about twenty; five in San Diego; four on the Monterey Peninsula; and there is scarcely a city, or even a small unincorporated village which does not have at least one good nine hole course.

A score of big-money tournaments are played on these courses every year. Some of these are local, such as the Los Angeles Open which is an annual event that draws the top flight pros and amateurs every year; the Big Crosby Annual Tournament held at famous Pebble Beach, Cypress Point and Monterey Country Club on the Monterey Peninsula; and many, many others. Courses in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Monterey have also been chosen several times for events of such national prominence as the "Masters," the United States open, and so forth.

Lest this last paragraph frighten away the duffer, let us hasten to say that 95 per cent of the play on all of these courses is by the so-called duffer. The man who plays at from 90 to 110 is by far the most appreciative and frequent player along El Camino Real, often with his wife or daughter along for company (and often beating the male member of the party). The regular women golfers number so many that in most clubs they have their own tournaments and look down their pretty noses at the men who attempt to horn in on their special day on the course.

Climate along the Mission Trails permits playing golf almost 365 days in the year. If it is raining in Los Angeles, there is always a chance that it is clear in Santa Barbara or Santa Maria, both of which are but a short distance away. In fact, it is claimed by most ardent golfers that you can play golf some place along the Mission Trails (El Camino Real) every day in the year. The setting of most of the courses is unrivaled for sheer scenic beauty. All the courses on the Monterey Peninsula are played through lovely forested hills looking out over the blue Pacific; at Morro Bay one looks constantly at the surging sea and towering Morro Rock . . . . and so we could go on and on and on.



82d DIVISION 'CHUTISTS TO TEST NEW PLANE—Paratroopers like these will put the new C-119 cargo and troop transport through its paces during an air show at Hagerstown, Md., in March. They will demonstrate loading of personnel and equipment aboard the plane, which can transport 42 soldiers with their combat equipment, or nine tons of cargo for 2,000 miles.

Women Of Moose February Meetings

Edna Kolls was chosen as the Girl of the Golden West by members of Women of the Moose, Chapter 739 at their last meeting at the Moose Hall, 3053 16th street.

The group will meet again at 8 p.m. February 16 at the Moose Hall. Ritual Chairman Berniece Spore will be in charge. An initiation will be held.

The grand council of the Women of the Moose has selected San Francisco for the next meeting, which will be held February 24-27 at the Stewart Hotel. Bessie Lovit, member of the grand council, will choose hostess chapters.

San Francisco Chapter No. 739 will attend the meeting of Richmond chapter February 23.

New Freedom For Women Of India

One of the most startling developments of recent years in India is the extraordinary emergence of women from obscurity and subservience to new freedom and active participation in political life, declares Lal Chand Mehra, lecturer in history for University Extension, University of California, who recently returned from a 35,000 mile trip to India and around the world.

"A new chivalry is being practiced by the men of India," Mehra reports. "Women are given courteous precedence everywhere, even in railway ticket lines! And they are traveling everywhere, not in any large numbers nor ever alone, but always free, graceful and attractive. The Indian woman has achieved her freedom without any hindrance or obstruction from the men. They have fought side by side with men for the freedom of India. Thus their own freedom, progress and growth has arrived with the freedom of the nation."

"I KNOW ALL ABOUT THEM," SAYS MRS. MURPHY!

Backfence gossip can sometimes be mighty important. Especially when two such sterling housewives as Mamie Murphy and Rosie Brown get to bandying words around! . . . Super! Marvelous! Well, let's be thankful that good homemakers take time, now and then, to pass along a good word or two about outstanding firms. Spring Semester Opens At San Mateo Junior College

The spring semester opened at San Mateo Junior College this week, with new and old students enrolling Monday and Tuesday and class work starting Wednesday. The college concentrated its registration work on the Baldwin campus and started work on all three campuses Wednesday. Business and art sections and some classes in English, history, and speech are offered on the Baldwin campus; math-engineering, shops, and sciences are taught on the Peninsula Avenue campus, and English, history, political science, journalism, and some speech classes are given at the Coyote Point campus.

Student programs are so arranged that a student takes work on only one or two of the three campuses, with bus service connecting the three campuses.

Forty-two of the college girls of the Women's Athletic Association spent the between-semester period in the high Sierras at Strawberry Lodge on a ski trip. Also, over the week end San Mateo lost a conference basketball game to San Francisco City College and this week end plays Modesto and Stockton in league games away from home.

President Robert Burns of the College of the Pacific will give an illustrated lecture Monday evening, February 14, at 7:30 in the college auditorium. Community Hall sponsors the program, assisted by the evening school. Back from a recent trip overseas, the speaker will talk on "A survey of Western Europe" and will illustrate his lecture with color slides dealing with a number of countries. February 21 and 28 Community Hall will present Lynn Wesley Jaeger, just back from ten years in South Africa, who will give two illustrated programs concerning southern African scenic spots, the people, and the wild animals. The public is invited to these lectures free of charge.
